MCCRADYS' RESTAURANT OFFERS TWO FESTIVE EVENTS FOR RINGING IN 2005, AS WELL AS PERFECT SPOT FOR HOLIDAY PARTIES WITH ALL THE BELLS AND WHISTLES

CHARLESTON, SC—November 28, 2005—McCradys' Restaurant is always a great place for celebrating, but never more so than during the holiday season. The historic Long Room, which is festively decorated throughout the holidays, is available for holiday dinners and parties. A special holiday menu will be offered for guests booking private parties. Features include such specialties as Pumpkin Soup with Bacon Flan, Asiago and Chive Oil, Carolina Grouper with Butternut Squash Puree, Celery Root, Parsnips and Lobster Butter and Egg Nog Cheesecake with Raspberry Port Sauce and Cinnamon Brittle. To book the Long Room or any other room at McCradys', call 843-577-0025, ext. 2.

In addition to holiday dinners and parties, McCradys' offers two different options for New Year's Eve 2005. An extravagant 4 course, prix-fixe dinner, which includes a pre-dessert and Amuse, will take place in the main dining room. Dinner guests receive party favors just before midnight to ring in the New Year in style. Tickets for the dinner are $95 per person, excluding tax, alcohol and gratuity.

Devotees of a great party can attend the 2006 McCradys' Space Odyssey, a space-themed costume party, which will take place in the restaurant's historic Long Room. An open bar featuring festive drinks, out-of-this-world hors d'oeuvres prepared by Chef de Cuisine Steven Musolf, spinning by DJ Belk and a big champagne toast as the ball drops at midnight are some of the things guests can enjoy. A costume contest will take place before midnight and will feature prizes: 1st place is $500; 2nd place is dinner for two at McCradys'; 3rd place is McCradys' Signature Wine Gift Basket. The costume ball begins at 9 p.m. and will last until 2 a.m. Tickets are $100 (all inclusive), and guests having dinner at McCradys' downstairs can join the festivities for $55.

Reservations are recommended for both events. To learn more, call (843) 577-0025 x1, or visit www.mccradysrestaurant.com.
